A musical score for the song "The Rose Tree". The score is written for a single melodic line on a treble clef staff and a bass line on a bass clef staff. The key signature is one sharp (F#), and the time signature is 4/4. The melody consists of a series of eighth and sixteenth notes, often beamed together, with various fingerings indicated by numbers 1-5 and slurs. The bass line features chords, including a prominent B major chord in the first measure, and some single notes. The score is divided into five measures, with a final measure containing a 7-measure rest.

The musical score for 'The Song of the Lark' is presented in two systems. The first system consists of a single staff with a treble clef, a key signature of one sharp (F#), and a 2/4 time signature. The melody is written in eighth notes, with various fingerings (1-5) and slurs indicated. The second system consists of two staves: a treble staff and a bass staff, both with a key signature of one sharp (F#). The treble staff continues the melody with fingerings and slurs, while the bass staff provides a harmonic accompaniment with chords and single notes. The piece concludes with a final chord in the bass staff.
